

Colorado/Utah Chapter Annual Report 2015

Membership:

36 current members

Financial Balance:

$1,468.04

Utah:

Ute Mountain Lookout, Ashley National Forest was completely restored and is in great shape.

Colorado:

Squaw Mountain

Booked solid with renters all the time. 45 min to downtown Denver. Great tower, go see it. Rent Squaw Fire Lookout

Hahns Peak Lookout

Hahns Peak is on the receiving end of a $73,427 grant awarded to Historic Routt County. Restoration is underway. Target for completion is fall 2016. Hahns has a very strong local support group and should have great days ahead.

Devils Head Lookout

Tower reworked in 2013-2014. The rangers cabin received a new roof in 2015. Excellent condition. Devil's Head Preservation

Fairview Peak

Fairview has come off the 'high risk' list in 2015 thanks to Uncompahgre & Gunnison NF, Gunnison Ranger District Justin Lawrence and team. They were mixing concert in the Spring of 2015 with melted snow so they didn't have to haul the water up. Genius! More work coming in 2016. FairView

Good shape and working:

Zenobia, Round Top, Deadman, Shadow Mountain, Devil's Head, Benchmark, Jersey Jim, Eight Mile Mesa, Park Point, Whites Mesa and Chapin Mesa Lookout are all in excellent to fairly good condition and staffed either full time or on a as needed basis.

High Risk and vulnerable:

Parkview, Leon Peak, and Archuleta Mesa Lookout are in bad shape and just standing. A recovery plan is needed for these Lookouts.
