

Florida Chapter report for 2012

2012 Florida activities were very slow and we were not very active this year. Continue to be in contact with the Florida Forest Service to work on tower programs. To date, there has been little progress as the state is still focused on selling towers.

Rita Sargent