

Vermont Chapter 2024 Annual Report

2024 Brought an interesting Discovery to the Green Mountain State, Glebe Mountain in Londonderry (known as Magic Mountain Ski Area) included a Wooden Fire Tower Erected by the C.C.C. Back in the 1930's Marty Podskoch Discovered this while Interviewing a former C.C.C. Member. The Bromley Observation Tower in Southern Vermont was Officially Opened this Year after a 12 Year Fundraising Campaign, It was a total Replacement of the 1962 Wooden Tower.

News from Northern Vermont:

an extensive Renovation of the Bald Mountain Tower in Westmore took place this Year.

All of the Wooden Components were Replaced with 2" white Oak.
